Live your best life by planning ahead

I urged my husband to get tested for COVID-19 after noticing he was coughing persistently and had difficulty breathing. Luckily his result came back negative. We were told he had a throat infection and that a round of antibiotics and other medicines would clear the inflammation.

However, his condition did not improve and continued to deteriorate. I didn't want to leave it to chance and decided to get a second opinion. Thankfully we had HealthInsured to seek advice from an overseas expert.

My heart sank when we were told he was suffering from throat cancer. We were advised to begin intensive treatment immediately, and if not for Allianz, we may not have been able to cover the cost of his medical bills.

One plan that cares for your needs

With money matters out of the way, we focused on getting my husband the best treatment we could find. Fortunately, our HealthInsured plan included genomic testing for cancer. After taking the test, my husband was recommended to complement his existing treatment with targeted drug therapy to fight off the cancer.

His prognosis vastly improved after several months of the combined treatments. He returned to his cheerful self with renewed hope and takes each day in stride living as a proud cancer survivor.

Case 1

Allianz Care @Home

Nurul recently had a persistent fever with body aches and decided to go for a check-up at a medical facility. The diagnostic results revealed that Nurul contracted dengue and was advised to seek medical attention.
Nurul recalled that her HealthInsured policy came with Allianz Care@Home service, so she opted for treatment at home instead as she wasn't comfortable to be admitted to a hospital.
She contacted Allianz's appointed provider and her condition was eligible for Allianz Care@Home. A team of medical professionals was dispatched to monitor and treat her condition at the comfort of her home. She recovered fully on 5th day and since she had opted for the Hospital Income Benefit, she was also entitled to that since she had confined for 5 days at home.

Medical Card for Treatment (if applicable)

Assuming Nurul's condition developed into severe dengue and she needed to be monitored at the hospital, the attending medical professionals at her home will facilitate a fast-lane admission via an ambulance transfer. The admission costs will be taken care of using her medical card.
